

“Our people make us great.”

George MacDonald

Senior Investment Advisor
gmacdonald@phillipsandco.com
503.416.4667

George MacDonald is a Senior Investment Advisor and has been with Phillips & Company since 1994. He is directly involved in developing practices that coincide with the organization's vision, mission and values. He provides investment advisory services with a focus on developing strategic solutions driven by clients' needs and goals.

George is a corporate officer and sits on the Leadership Board Committee at Phillips & Company.

In the past, George has enjoyed volunteering for the Children's Cancer Association. He shares a wonderful baby daughter with his wife, Rachel, and is an avid runner and cyclist.

George attended Portland State University in Portland, Oregon, where he studied Biology.

George holds FINRA™ licenses (Series 7, 63, and 65) registered for Phillips & Company as well as his Life & Health Insurance license.