

“Our people make us great.”

George MacDonald

Senior Investment Advisor
gmacdonald@phillipsandco.com
503.416.4667

George MacDonald is a Senior Investment Advisor and has been with Phillips & Company since 1994. He is directly involved in developing practices that coincide with the organization’s vision, mission and values. He provides investment advisory services with a focus on developing strategic solutions driven by clients’ needs and goals.

George is a corporate officer and sits on the Leadership Board Committee at Phillips & Company.

In the past, George has enjoyed volunteering for the Children’s Cancer Association. He shares two wonderful kids with his wife, Rachel, and is an avid runner and cyclist.

George attended Portland State University in Portland, Oregon, where he studied Biology.

George holds FINRA™ licenses (Series 7, 63, and 65) registered for Phillips & Company, as well as his Life & Health Insurance license.